You may also report side effects to Trigem Laboratories at 1-888-907-4436.

Other serious side effects include:
- Swelling of the limbs
- Sensitivity to sunlight
- Rash or a skin condition
- Sore throat or fever
- Upper respiratory tract infection
- Headache
- Blood in the urine
- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Nausea
- Nervousness
- A burning feeling in the mouth or on the tongue
- An unusual taste in your mouth
- Frequent urination
- A change in sex drive
- Unusual thoughts or actions
- Trouble sleeping
- Streetwear
- Frequent urination
- A change in sex drive
- Unusual thoughts or actions
- Trouble sleeping
- Streetwear

Common side effects include:
- Dizziness
- Headache
- Dry mouth
- Nausea
- Trouble sleeping
- Dizziness
- Weight loss
- Stomach ache
- Irritability

Side effects may impair the ability of a child to spend potentially hazardous machinery or vehicles safely or your child's social skills, outside your child's home. Methylphenidate hydrochloride extended-release tablets does not adversely affect your or your child’s ability to engage in such activities. Ask your doctor or pharmacist for more information about what to do if your child has side effects that are bothering or do not go away.

This is not a complete list of possible side effects. Ask your doctor or pharmacist for more information.